CATTLEMEN OF WEST DEMAND REDUCED RATE

Cannot Sell Livestock for Enough to Pay Freight, Board Is Told

WASHINGTON, Feb. 7.—A reduction in freight rates was asked today by the interstate commerce commission by six of the largest cattlemen's associations of the west.

The complaint contended that financial conditions made it impossible to obtain loans to condition cattle for market properly and that growers were compelled to sell "for whatever price" in an unmarketable condition.

CANT PAY FREIGHT

"Sheep have declined in value that they will scarcely pay the freight to market," the complaint said. "The wool is unsalable and crops of last year are stored with no buyers."

Others in MOVE

Joining in the complaint were the National Livestock Shippers' League, the American National Livestock Association, the National Wool Growers' Association, the Cattle Raisers' Association of Texas, the Corn Belt Meat Producers' Association of Iowa, and the Kansas Livestock Association.

MEXICAN BOMB OUTRAGE HELD RADICAL DEED

Home of Archbishop and American Factory Are Damaged by Bombs

RED RUSSIAN AGENTS BELIEVED TO BE ACTIVE

Radical Agitators Become More Bold and Make Threats Openly

MEXICO CITY, Feb. 7.—Police authorities and government secret service agents were engaged today in collecting evidence which might lead to the arrest of men who bombed the residence of the archbishop of Mexico and the building occupied by Juergens & Company in this city, yesterday morning.

FOUR MEN BLAMED

Information gathered by the police would seem to indicate that four men did the actual work of setting off both bombs. A small car was seen to approach the archbishop's residence shortly before 1 o'clock yesterday morning.

Radicals Arriving

Radical activity has been increasing in Mexico City recently, and newspapers here say that two communist congresses will be held this month, one in Mexico City and the other in Tampico.

NOT ANTI-AMERICANISM

There have been suggestions that feeling over the election of two Mexicans, Sanchez and Garcia, in the New York state primary at Sing Sing, might have led their friends to have attacked the Juergens building, but officials of the company are inclined to believe anti-Americanism did not enter into the setting of the bomb.

STATE ASKS JURY TO FIND WOMAN GUILTY

Circumstantial Evidence Convincing Is Contention of District Attorney Evans

MRS. BARKER'S COUNSEL SAYS THERE'S NO PROOF

Children on Stand to Refute Contention There Was Man in Case

This afternoon the fate of Mrs. Laura Barker, charged with murder in the first degree, for the alleged poisoning of her husband, will rest in the hands of the jury.

IMMENSE CROWD

The largest crowd which has attended any trial in the district court since the trial of Joseph Henry Martin, blackmailer, was on hand this morning.

CHILDREN TESTIFY

The appearance on the witness stand of Grace Barker and Manley Barker, children of the woman on trial, featured the session this morning.

DENIES CONVERSATION

Mrs. Barker was then called to the stand by Attorney Haysman and on questioning, denied that she had told Mrs. Barker about any man staying in her home.

DOES NOT ANSWER

Mrs. Barker did not answer the question as to whether she had told Mrs. Barker about any man staying in her home.
